

Graduate Security QA Engineer

Responsible for

- Executing security tests in prioritized order according to the plan (Risk Based testing assessment) in collaboration with other QA Engineers and security QA Engineers
- Executing vulnerabilities assessment on the project level with the guidance from more experienced Security QA Engineer
- Assist in penetration testing
- Assist in security research
- Documenting the tests in a test management tool according to the Security QA Model
- Reporting test status to QA Lead/Specialist QA
- Issue reporting
- Successfully passing the Base Course training and passing an examination.
- Participating in team meetings

Required skills

General

- 1-2 years of work experience in Cybersecurity domain.
- Fresh graduates are encouraged to apply
- Good written and oral communication skills in English
- Good understanding of QA testing and concepts

Hard Skills

- Experience in developing testing documentation
- Familiar with C#
- Familiar with GIT
- Basic Vulnerability Assessment skills
 - Preferred: Experience with at least one main stream WVS
- Basic programming skills
 - Preferred: Comfortable in moderate level of scripting in either python or javascript
- Interest in Penetration testing
 - Preferred: Real life experience in penetration testing
- Interest in Security Research
 - Preferred: Familiar with Research Methodology and Mindset
- Interest in Software Security Framework

Soft skills

- Good problem solving and analytical skills:
 - With his/her manager clarifies expectations about what will be done and how. Asks for the assistance when necessary.
 - Stays focused on a current task, does not lose the context because of distractions and interventions.
- Communication:

- Expresses ideas clearly and concisely in writing.
 - Keeps people accurately informed and up to date.
- Attitude:
 - Follows company processes and practices.
 - Demonstrates positive attitude to the company.
 - Feels the company fairness. Clarifies things when he/she is unsure about matters or reasons.
- Agility:
 - Acts according to the position requirements.
 - Appropriately reacts on the constructive feedback.
Fail reasons are analyzed by the employee.